The Martlet

From The Headmaster

I would like to take the opportunity at the outset to express my particular thanks to all the staff and students who have contributed in so many ways to the compilation of this first edition of "The Martlet". In particular, I must express my gratitude to Mrs. Nicole Mathias who has taken principal responsibility for the organization of this yearbook — the first of many yet to come that shall bear the same title.

Why, "The Martlet"?

A very impressive proclamation, presented to Saltus by the Royal College of Heralds, is to be found hanging in my office. Within the text, you may read the following description of the heraldic devices on the school's coat of arms:

"Azure a ship of the seventeenth century in full sail on a chief wavy argent, two martlets gules"

The "two martlets gules" (two red martlets) are drawn to distinguish the arms of the fourth son of the family. The fourth son was unlikely to be a significant individual and was therefore felt to have "no footing in family matters". Hence, the bird is shown with feathers instead of feet! In Shakespeare, the martlet appears as "the temple-haunting martlet" and

*"Where they most breed and haunt, I have observed
The air is delicate ..."*

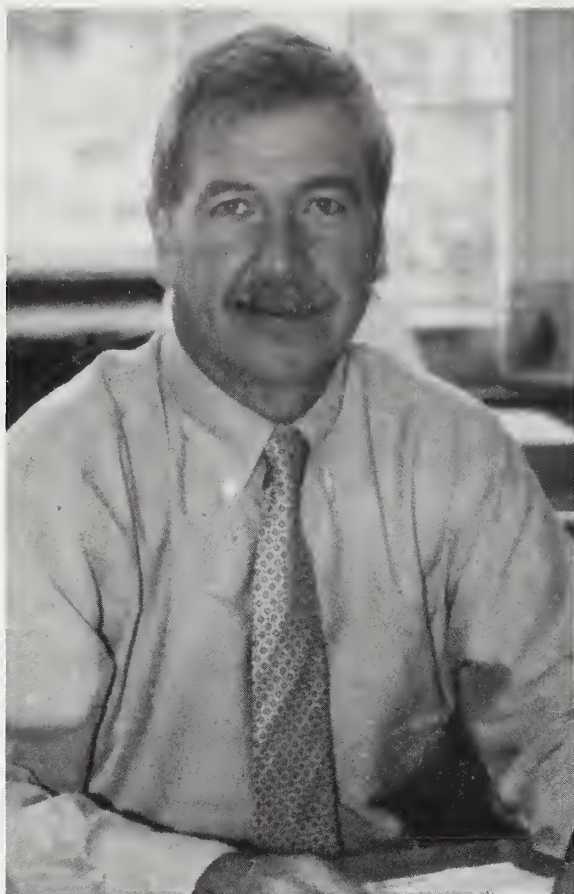

Perhaps I should strain for some significances? No, I think that it is more realistic to observe that "The Martlet" is simply, "A good title for a great book!"

Congratulations to everyone on a busy and refreshingly rich year.

Saltus Cavendish Preparatory School Staff 2000-2001

Sue Long left Cavendish in December; she and husband Dave have relocated in sunny Mexico! While we have certainly missed hearing the sounds of piano, autoharp, and even accordion floating through the air here at Cavendish, we are sure Sue is enjoying exploring her new musical environment and wish her a happy and rewarding future!

We say a fond farewell to Tracy Renaud who leaves us this year to complete her Bachelor of Education at Queen's University in Canada. She will be sorely missed by both staff and students who hope she will return to Cavendish in a new capacity in the near future!

INSTRUMENTS DONATED BY WENDY AND PETER BLYTHE

The next two pages end the Junior School section of the Year Book and we would like to thank all those who have made this another successful year for the school.

Firstly, the class mothers who work so hard throughout the year making the lives of the children and the teachers easier.

The staff who have given so willingly of their time to help compile this book especially, as always, Mr. Beasley and Mrs. Williams for their photographic contributions.

Lastly, we would like to send best wishes to all who have left the school during the year and hope that, with the help of this book, their time at Saltus will be memorable.

Following the huge success of last year's production of 'West Side Story' our dynamic cast took to the boards again to produce another box office hit with the romantic comedy 'Sweet Charity'. Over sixty students worked together to ensure that audiences were enthralled and amazed by the talents of our Saltus actors.

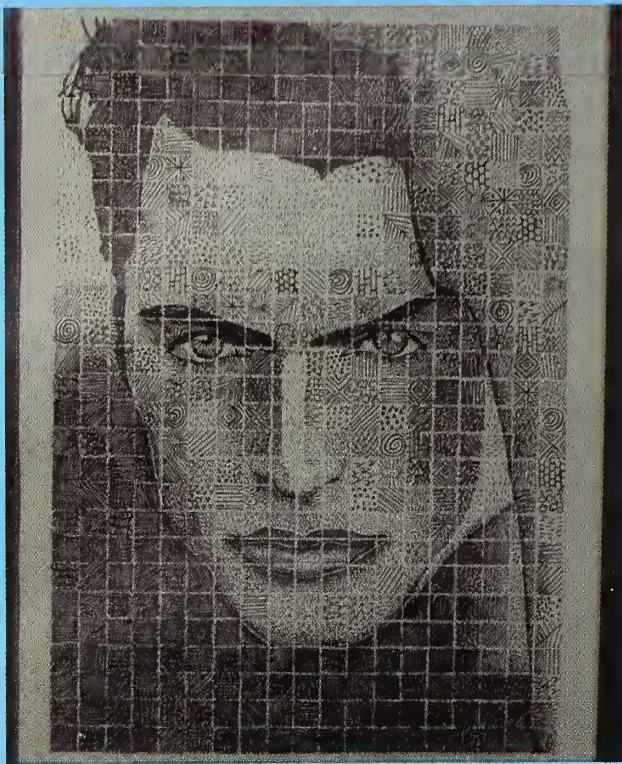

Here we see Kitwana Williams, Ariel Foy and Stephanie Smellie relaxing backstage, Matthew Wissing and the congregation thriving on 'The Rhythm of Life' and Becki Doughty, Mia Chambray, Gillian Henderson, Fiona Lee, Jessica Frith and Velina Wheatley as hostesses at The Fan Dango Ballroom.

"Drama
At Saltus"

Students can enjoy drama at every level of the curriculum. Whether they are exploring Greek theatre, Shakespeare or creating their own masterpieces students always have the opportunity to develop the necessary dramatic skills. Here we see Brian Rodriguez assuming the role of a witch in the opening sequence of 'Macbeth', Peter Riihiluoma and Andrew Barnes demonstrating their media skills 'on location' and Fiona Lee, Akyini Apopa and Stephanie Smellie preparing for the GCSE tour of 'Alice in Wonder'.

ICT Department

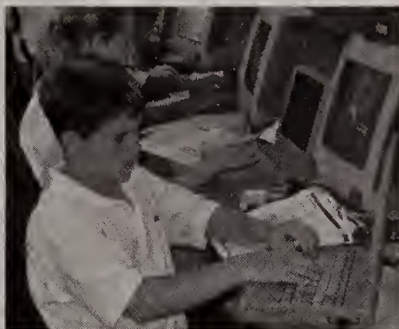

There have been a number of changes in the ICT Department this year. Briefly:

- Mr. Gilhooly returned to England, taking a post as ICT Head at the Canford School in Dorset.
- Mr. Pracsovics joined the staff as the new Head of ICT, and immediately began the process of updating the ICT curriculum, as well as managing the newly implemented Saltus Administrative databases.
- Student Gradesheets and Student Reports have been automated through a series of databases.
- Mr. Thorpe designed a new, slick look for the Saltus web site (<http://www.saltus.bm>). It now has the capability for interaction with parent and student alike. Much of its potential is, as of yet, untapped!

The ICT Department continues to produce some of the best GCSE results, and is looking forward to carrying over that success into the SGY AP exams, for which students could possibly receive university credits. Mr. Gilhooly correctly pointed out that the AP Computer Science C++ course can cause some cerebral-bruising, but the rewards are great!

I am looking forward to working with you, the students, from S1 through SGY, to help you to continue to realize the high rates of success and outstanding results that you have come to enjoy.

This has been a very busy and exciting year for the Saltus Grammar School Science department. After another year of excellent results, the staff and students continued the good progress with lots of interesting practical work. The following photographs show many of our young scientists involved in experiments that enhance their understanding of the world around them.

It is with regret that we say farewell to Mr. Shepherd and Mr. Wright who are both leaving Saltus Grammar School to pursue careers in other areas. We wish them every success for the future.

Saltus Ski 2001

Twenty one senior school students went skiing at Easter. We went to Winterpark in Colorado and had a great time.

The Ski Lodge was a little basic, but the helpful staff and the warm friendly atmosphere made up for it.

Many people skied or snowboarded for the first time while others enjoyed themselves on more challenging runs.

Mr. Shepherd proved to be a natural on the snowboard.

In the absence of any televisions, chess proved surprisingly popular. Our champion Husayn, takes on the chess prodigy.

The Staff were extremely impressed by the great behaviour and good humour of all the students.

This year's Rag Week used a number of fun activities to raise money for P.A.L.S., Children International and the Sierra Leone Action Network. Students raised $1300 over 4 days, through a Student Auction, Blind Date competition, and by voting to Flan a teacher! The climax of the week was the Grub Day and Silly Sports on the Thursday afternoon, where teams competed for the coveted trophy!

Saltus Trip To Spain February 3rd-10th 2001

Nineteen students from years 2-5 enjoyed a linguistically challenging and culturally rewarding trip to Spain in early February. They were accompanied by Ms. Parry and Mr. Beard who both agreed that the students were a credit to the school and their parents as well as being excellent "roving ambassadors" for Bermuda. Airline staff also commented on their exemplary behaviour. Cultural highlights included the orange-tree-lined city of Seville and the cathedral where Christopher Columbus is reputedly buried; the beautiful Alhambra Palace in Granada and its famous gardens; a visit to the Island of Gibraltar (an independent overseas territory also) where the Barbary apes who inhabit this island provided endless entertainment. Many of the students were to get their first glimpse of Africa which is only 17 miles away. The weather was good and we were fortunate to have had the opportunity to sample the cultural artistic and gastronomic delights of this richly diverse country and to practice our Spanish. All the students agreed there was still a lot more to discover and they would be recommending Spain to their parents as their next holiday destination.

The pages of this yearbook celebrate some of the many events and achievements of this memorable year, among them (in no particular order) the hugely enjoyable show 'Sweet Charity' in November, the successes of our Young Enterprise companies and debating team, the Duke of Edinburgh yompers, the many sporting triumphs — I particularly like the headline in the Bermuda Sun of 15th December, "Saltus claims schools' titles" over an article which didn't seem to leave much for any other schools to win! — the music of Carols for All and the performances of our musicians at many events around the island, and the opening of our splendid new Art Suite with the help of the Bank of Bermuda Foundation. A memorable year indeed! So much of these achievements is owed to the combined efforts of students and staff who have given of their time, energy and expertise to make things really happen.

On the academic front, this year we have begun to recognise particularly good work or academic effort with a new scheme of credits and distinctions. The green credit slips have been eagerly sought by students who can accumulate them to earn lunch leaves; they are also worth House points. At the time of writing, no fewer than 2,931 have been awarded to students throughout the School. Distinctions, a much rarer award for substantial work of conspicuous excellence, earn the student the honours of posterity in the Distinctions Book, together with a certificate and six House points; 59 have so far been awarded.

We wish all success to those students who leave us this year, and in particular the Graduate Year who have been enjoyable to teach and have contributed much to the Senior School. We bid farewell, too, to eight members of staff whose erstwhile students and colleagues will long remember them with great affection: Elizabeth Campbell, Tim Rhodes, Helga Senior, Mark Shepherd, Gerard Stones, Gary Thorpe, Paul Wright and Christina Wrigley. We wish them every success and happiness for the future.

As we enter a new academic year, with new challenges and, I hope, new successes, let us remember some of the moments of this exhilarating school year — captured in the pages of the book.

Honouring Francis 'Goose' Gosling (1917-2001)

To honour the memory of one of the school's most beloved graduates and its longest serving Trustee, Francis 'Goose' Gosling, Saltus Grammar School closed for one day, February 20, and the school flag was flown at half-staff for one week. According to Headmaster Nigel J. G. Kermode, closing for anyone other than a Head of State was unprecedented in Saltus' 113-year history: "Saltus had not closed for mourning since the death of King George V in 1936. However, I believe it was entirely appropriate to mark the passing of Francis 'Goose' Gosling in that way.

'Goose' also was one of our most active Trustees, serving as chairman of the Buildings Committee, and visiting the Senior School every day of every academic year that I recall in my twenty-three years at Saltus.

The Trustees closed the school out of respect for a great man, who dedicated more than half of his life to Saltus, in order that our staff and students could attend his funeral. It was a very sad day, indeed, for Saltus Grammar School-I miss 'Goose' and I know I am joined by the entire Saltus community in transmitting sincere condolences to his family and to his many friends".
